

Father God,

Thank You for always teaching us. As we enjoy fellowship with others, we'll sometimes stumble and forget that we're meant to be invisible in the room. Lord, we pray that when we do this, You'll forgive us and gently nudge our hearts and minds to recall Your words. Help us Lord, to always keep the bowl and towel in the fronts of our minds so that we may express our love to others; let our lips be quiet and our ears be open as we allow others the higher place at the table.

In Jesus' Holy Name we pray,

Amen
